INTRODUCTION.

Quaker
DR. SAMUEL S. PURPLE whose unrivalled collection of American Genealogies are here catalogued was born in Lebanon, N. Y., June 24th, 1822. He was a prominent New York Physician, and important member of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, and Editor of their "Record" from 1874 to 1886. His genealogical writings will be found in this catalogue. At an early date in his career (1850) he began collecting works on American Genealogy at a time when there were comparatively few collectors in these lines. As far back as 1870 he had acquired a library of such books which ranked as one of the completest in the States. From 1870 until a few days before his death he was active in hunting and buying genealogies, and he left no stone unturned to run down any rare item that might come under his notice. It goes without saying that no such complete collection has ever been or ever will be again offered for sale. It affords the older libraries a chance to still further complete their genealogical section, and makes possible for newer libraries to fill up their shelves at one sale with such a collection as has taken the older institutions years of patient readings of catalogues and private purchasing to secure.

Dr. Purple considered his collection of private memoirs, memorial addresses, etc., a most important part of his library. Many of these contain genealogical items, personal history, etc., not to be found elsewhere, and as the material was furnished by the family the dates and statements can be depended upon. These privately printed books were issued in very limited numbers for the family only, and are now unobtainable. Dr. Purple prided himself on these privately printed books and many were the genealogical facts he solved from their pages. He could never understand why the average collector overlooked this mine of information, or why not more than three or four public institutions have paid any serious attention to such material.

The library is also rich in unpublished genealogical manuscripts and pedigrees, including those made by Dr. Purple. Among the 235 lots of manuscripts will be found Quaker Marriages of Long Island, 1663-1766 (37 folio pages), Bergen's Dutch Church Marriages, 1801-1807 (25 folio pages). A large collection of manuscript material regarding the "Bull-Smith's of Long Island," mostly in Dr. Purple's handwriting. Marriage Laws and Customs in New Netherlands (about 60 pieces), by Dr. Purple, with researches made and letters from the late George R. Howell of the New York State Library. The Trumbull Family of Connecticut, a manuscript two feet by four feet long, with notes. Pedigree of Simon Bradstreet, MSS. Broadhead Pedigree by E. B. O'Callaghan, and in his handwriting, etc., etc., etc.

We have not put "rare" or "scarce" after any of the lots, as to do so would mean nearly three-quarters of the items. We may mention such unusual books as Stebbins Family, 1771, the First American Genealogy, Hyde Family, 2 vols., Wolcott Memorial, Bergen Family, Buell Family, Abner Morse's various works, Strong Family, Fiske Family, 1865, Foote Family, Magazine of Western History, Dawson's Historical Magazine, Magazine of American History, Burke's various works on the Peerage, Heraldry, etc., Hinman's Puritan Settlers, sets of New England Historical and Genealogical Register, New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, Family of Edward Jackson of Newton, 1839, Family of John Lawrence of Watertown, 1847, Loomis Genealogies, De Peyster Family, extra illustrated and with manuscript additions, etc., etc. A careful reading of the catalogue will reveal many lots equally as interesting and rare.

Hartford: Ebenezer Watson, 1771

The original edition of the earliest genealogy in distinct form to be printed in the United States. It stands No. 1 on Whitmore's List, who states that he never saw a copy. Pages 17 to 24 are supplied from the reprint of 1879, but this copy contains both half-title and title in excellent condition. It has several contemporary additions and corrections in ink. In the reprint made in 1879, under the auspices of the N. E. Hist.-Genea. Soc., it is stated that but two perfect copies are known; and a chance to secure a copy as good as the above may never offer again.

5 — 2284 STEBBINS. Genealogy of the Family of Mr. Samuel Stebbins and Mrs. Hannah Stebbins, his wife, 1707-1771. (By Luke Stebbins.) Reprinted from the rare original edition of 1771, with Index Tables, etc. 4to, cloth. (1879.)
